The Micha-el School believes that Waldorf education should be made available to all families. Parents who wish to put their children in the school may apply to our "Accessible to All" program and meet with representatives of the school to form a consensus on what tuition can be paid. Parents who apply for "Accessible to All" must be able to offer a minimum of 50% of tuition.

Upon registration parents will sign a tuition contract.

All checks are to be made payable to: Micha-el School.

The Micha-el School does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in any of its programs or administration.
